Festival WhyNot

Dance, Performance, Music and Art

A beautiful city garden. Bodies in the grass. Art against a blue sky. Dancing until the sun rises again. Festival WhyNot is back! And this time the Tolhuistuin in Amsterdam Noord forms the stage for contemporary dance, performances, art installations, live music, short films, artist-talks, workshops, pop-up's and parties.

Join us for this fifth edition, which will be all about lush greenery, nakedness and tons of clay...
